NATION IS MENACED BY COMPLETE RAIL TIE-UP

Harding's Peace Proposal Rejected at Conference; Seniority Rights Cause of Friction

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—President Harding's latest effort to settle the railroad shopmen's strike collapsed here today on the seniority issue, and the country now faces the prospect of a general transportation tie-up with the nonstriking operatives of the railroads contributing to the cause of the shopmen by refusing to take out defective equipment or to work under protection of armed guards.

Rules for Both Sides

Daily additions to the ranks of the new shop employees on the Pacific system of the Southern Pacific railroad are being made at such a rate that an ample supply of shopmen will be available within the near future, according to a report given out by local representatives of the road yesterday.

This condition not only is here but it is characteristic of the conditions which exist in the greater part of the Pacific system. The new employees have formed an organization which is called "The Pacific System Shop Crafts Protective League."

LARGE MEMBERSHIP
The report which was sent out yesterday stated that approximately 10 per cent of the shopmen working for the Southern Pacific are members of the new organization. Agreements have been signed by the representatives of the new organization in acceptance of rates of pay, working conditions and rules as developed by the U. S. Railroad Labor Board.

The new association is made necessary because the striking employees of the road are not privileged to take their cases before the labor board. It was necessary to have some body whose representatives could appear before the arbitrary board.

LABOR BOARD RULES
The part of the resolution passed by the labor board, which governs the new employees' organization and the conditions under which they work, is given as follows:

"Whereas, in the future submission of disputes involving rates of pay, working conditions and grievances of employees of the carriers, it will be necessary to have a practical necessity for the employees of each class on each carrier to form some sort of association or organization to function in the representation of said employees before the Railroad Labor Board, in order that the effective action of the Transportation Act may be maintained.

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that it be communicated to the carriers and the employees remaining in the service and the new employees remaining in the service, that they have left the service to take steps as soon as practical to perfect on each carrier some organization or association to function in the representation of said employees before the Railroad Labor Board, in order that the effective action of the Transportation Act may be maintained.

Walkout Yet

FRENO, Aug. 13.—Mails are delayed and in many instances tied up, and fruit shippers in the valley are facing losses aggregating approximately $1,000,000 a day as the result of the walkout on the Santa Fe and a threatened walkout on the Southern Pacific, it became known today. Postal officials and fruit shippers are considering the possibility of using trucks to alleviate the situation.

Despite contrary reports, local officials of the Big Four declare no walkout is impending in the valley at the present time. However, brotherhoods are holding meetings every day in Union Hall, where the situation is discussed.

WALKS SOMETHING ON STOP
"Unless something unforeseen happens, the men will remain on the job,"

That was the declaration last night of V. L. Whitlow, chairman of the local Brotherhood of Engineers.

"The men will be on the job for the next twenty-four hours at least," Whitlow stated, "and will remain there unless something occurs to assist them. I know nothing of the charge by Vice-President A. G. Wells of the Santa Fe that railroad men are guilty of conspiracy."

Fruit men declared today they were unable to accurately estimate the amount of damage done fruit in the valley through failure to make shipments. Some declared it would reach $1,000,000 a day; others placed the figure higher. One fruit shipper declared his loss is $100,000 a day.

Bankers, growers, shippers, business, professional and industrial men and civic leaders will meet tonight at 8 p. m. in the Commercial Club to discuss the strike. The meeting was called by the Fresno Chamber of Commerce and chambers of commerce of the county.

PACKING-HOUSES IDLE
Several fruit packing-houses of the county have ceased operations, it was announced today, because of the embargo placed on the fruit shipments by the Santa Fe and the embargo on the Southern Pacific.

It was stated because of the closing of these packing-houses and the embargo, "incalculable damage" will result. Hundreds of truck loads of fruit are being shipped north and south at the present time. More than 300 trucks are carrying grapes were shipped to Los Angeles Saturday night by various packing-houses of the county.

Many of the offices of the valley, which are served by the Santa Fe, are without mail deliveries, it was announced last night by Postmaster George W. Turner. He declared there will be steps taken tomorrow to transport mail to the cities.

No eastern mail was received in Fresno, Turner declared, because of the walkout at Ogden. He stated postal arrangements have been made for the rerouting of mails and it is possible eastern mail will be received tomorrow.

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that it be communicated to the carriers and the employees remaining in the service and the new employees remaining in the service, that they have left the service to take steps as soon as practical to perfect on each carrier some organization or association to function in the representation of said employees before the Railroad Labor Board, in order that the effective action of the Transportation Act may be maintained.

members of railroad organizations have usually gone back with their rights to the railroad. They see no reason why that policy should be changed at this time. The railroad men are not taking any chances of losing the door to negotiation.

Officials of the brotherhoods tonight denied the report emanating from railroad executive sources that they had proposed arbitration of the seniority issue. The proposal did not originate with them, it was declared.

safe and much cooler. When I left home I never dreamed of railroad men's miserable episode in California.

The station was packed with a tremendous crowd. Some came for curiosity, but most of them were there because some relative or some friend was returning from the strike.

The 125 passengers formed a collective picture of fatigue and disappointment and indignation in the words of a passenger:

"It was the most pitiful thing I've ever seen. I saw babies cry for milk that was unavailable. I saw mothers nurse their babies and cry with them to ease their little hearts and hunger."

I saw an old lady who was near the century mark in years kept alive with fanning and cool water.

"I saw an old man collapse—I thought he was dead—but he lingered on, and was unconscious most of the way up here."

RANCHER SINGS MOORE PRAISES

Tribute Paid to Character of Candidate

State Needs Practical Man at Washington

Tehama County to Desert Hiram Johnson

"Good ranchers are good business men—and that's the answer to the overwhelming vote the ranchers of California are going to give Charles C. Moore."

Sitting up conditions not only in his own part of the State, but all the way down the great Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys. George O. Shumway, well known agriculturalist of Tehama county, yesterday predicted that Mr. Moore would defeat Hiram Johnson for the Republican Senatorial nomination by at least 60,000 votes.

NEIGHBOR OF MOORE
Mr. Shumway is a near neighbor of Mr. Moore when the latter is at his big ranch near Cottonwood, in the northern part of the State. He knows at first hand Mr. Moore's system of developing the soil, handling labor and his treatment of conditions that arise constantly on the vast Moore acreage.

"When California sends Charles C. Moore to the United States Senate we will know who our representative is, what he stands for, to whom he owes allegiance, and what side of the fence he is on all the time," said Mr. Shumway. "Right now we don't know how our senator stands on several vital issues, nor what his political standard is."

"Up in Tehama county we see quite a lot of Mr. Moore, and we hear a whole lot about his ranch. Naturally, we farmers are interested in the raising of a big crop of alfalfa, or the best way to fatten pigs, or any one of the other details that go to make our vocations in life a success. So we know by the results he gets right in our own neighborhood that Mr. Moore knows how to do things. Our system gives us the best of alfalfa, and he is able to do things that we cannot do. He is able to do things that we cannot do. He is able to do things that we cannot do."

PRACTICAL MAN NEEDED
"California needs a man of practical experience in the United States Senate. Our State is one of the greatest agricultural empires in the world. Our representative in Congress should be able to discuss intelligently the welfare of our farmers. He should know at first hand about our water, power and conservation needs, our timber lands, our orchards and our business enterprises."

"I know personally that Mr. Moore is a successful farmer and stock raiser. I have learned from my friends in this end of the State

RECLUSE CLINGS TO CITY DUMP

Help to English Estate Doesn't Care to Give Up Humble Shack

PRELUDE TO ISLE (M.)
Aug. 12.—Fifty thousand dollars is a lot of money, but it won't turn his head, not a bit of it. I shall live right along just as I have been living.

"Perhaps I will stop digging ditches because I need a long rest, but I won't go crazy because I have got money."

This is the philosophy of Leslie P. Wheaton, recluse of this town, who has fallen heir to a $50,000 estate in England.

For sixteen years Wheaton, has lived here, and during all these years has made his home in a one-room shack that occupies a position of prominence on the fringe of the town dump.

that he is a successful citrus fruit and olive grower. His record as a business man is clearly written in his results with the Panama-Pacific Exposition and the Charles C. Moore ranch, of which he is the directing head.

"Nobody has to inquire to find out the type of patriot Mr. Moore is, for his actions speak for themselves. Not only did he give his employees who want to war the difference between their civilian and soldier pay, but he held their jobs open to them until they were hounded out. Also, he organized the first replacement bureau in California, and aided financially many individual cases of need that came to his attention."

"ABOUT FACE" VOTE
"We farmers know these things about Moore, and he looks like the biggest man we have ever had a chance to vote for as a Senator from California. Tehama county gave Johnson a majority of 141 votes in the 1918 election, but we were then voting for a different Johnson than the 1922 model. Even were Johnson at the height of his career, and administering the affairs of the people in a popular manner, it is doubtful if he could have put Moore on the ticket with as large, or larger majorities than they gave Johnson over Booth."

Pacific-Southwest Review

By G. C. MARSHALL,
Alhambra Vice President, Los Angeles Trust & Savings Bank
Manager, Alhambra Branch

The city of Alhambra has many advantages to recommend it to the prospective home seeker, worker or investor in Southern California. Not the least of these is the fact that it is located directly in the path of the development of the metropolitan Los Angeles area and combines the advantage of being part of the area undergoing rapid industrial development, with the advantage of being at the same time a particularly desirable residence community, both for people locally employed and for those employed in the city of Los Angeles.

The industrial district is located at the western section of the city and already has a payroll of from $75,000 to $100,000 a month, and there are several very substantial new industries in prospect. Ideal locations for plants are available at reasonable costs with excellent switching facilities; the community is attractive to the workers as well as a home community; plentiful supplies of power are available and the district is directly in the industrial district of the metropolitan territory of Los Angeles, which affords industrial plants the advantage of looking near other industrial organizations.

There is probably no more progressive, cleaner, or more attractive community to be found in this territory. This is well evidenced by the fact that the city, which was unincorporated in 1900, had a population of 5,021 in 1910 and of 9,096 in 1920. It is now conservative.

With the city of Los Angeles the gateway for the tourist and home seeker, it is the intention of The First National Bank of Los Angeles, the Los Angeles Trust & Savings Bank and the First Securities Company to call the attention of the people in Los Angeles to the development and opportunities in the various districts served by the merged banks, through articles published in the Los Angeles papers, dealing with the various contiguous districts in the economic area served by these banks.

service insures the city ample means for attracting properly financed, properly conceived, and properly organized and operated plants.

These are but a few of the facts which show the rapid development of Alhambra and the reasons why it offers attractive opportunities to prospective residents and investors.

Put and Take in Car Buying

All motor car body styles have been a compromise. Weather and dust protection and driving comfort have been "put" into closed cars, and a certain degree of "pop," power, speed, and touring delight have been "taken."

Extra passenger capacity has been added to open models and driving compartment room, economy, flexibility and light weight have been sacrificed.

The New Westcott Larger Six, with the California type permanent top marks a distinct advance in car designing because it eliminates these compromises.

Big, generous seats for seven people have been provided with slight increase in weight, without sacrificing driving compartment room and with no appreciable loss of power, flexibility, and speed.

For an extra $100, the Westcott rigid frame plate-glass winter enclosure is provided, which gives all the weather protection of closed models, but without sacrifice of economy or driving pleasure.

You will find Westcotts averaging over ten years of continuous service as against the national average for all cars of six and a half years.

The Westcott Larger Six is a car with "all put and no take."

Three Britishers held by Bolsheviks; Serious Complications Possible

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 13.—In retaliation for British solidarity with other nations at The Hague against the Bolsheviks the latter have seized three British steamers and arrested three Britishers at Batoum, according to advices received by radio from the former British Consul at Batou. It is understood, furthermore, that the agreement with the Shell interests and now intends to nationalize all oil properties at Batou, regardless of previous ownership.

The Britishers being held by the Bolsheviks are Mr. Sully, manager of the Shell Transport, Mr. Moe, his attorney, and J. B. Dodge, suspected of being an agent of the Anglo-Persian Oil Company. The steamers seized are the George, Edric and the Lady Helena. The British commercial firm of Whitehall Company was closed by the Bolsheviks on Friday. During the night the seals on the doors were broken and the shops raided. Money was not touched, but all documents in the place, even to torn paper in the wastebasket, were taken.

NEBRASKA USES CORN AS COAL

Low-Priced Grain Cheaper Than High-Cost Fires

State Produces No Regular Fuel, but is Independent

Huge Crop Promises Heat for Many Farmers

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

OMAHA, Aug. 13.—Nebraska is going to burn corn instead of coal this winter, and she is going to save money by doing so.

Although this state does not produce a ton of coal, a gallon of oil, nor scarcely a cord of wood, the farmers of the state are practically independent of the fuel situation. If the coal strike is not settled before frost and the stream of black diamonds turned into the prairie country, Nebraska farmers will simply load up their stoves with corn and will keep warm just as though they were burning the best Pennsylvania hard coal.

Seven million, five hundred thousand bushels of corn are now being produced in the state for this winter. It is true, however, that Nebraska is not a coal state, and Iowa burns the corn produced in that state and Kansas and one or two other Western states follow the lead of Nebraska, some of these coal-burners are going to want to burn corn. There will be a shortage of bread and meat.

CORN CHEAP
Last year, when a coal shortage threatened, the University of Nebraska made a scientific investigation of the relative value of coal and corn for fuel. The result was surprising. The university found that when coal cost $15 a ton, and corn was selling at $1.50 a bushel, it was worth only 50 cents per bushel, it was as cheap for the farmer to burn his corn as it is to sell the corn and buy the coal. In addition to which, the farmer would have to haul his corn to market and haul the coal to the railroad to the farm.

Today is not selling quite up to $15.00 per ton in the country towns. But there is no coal in Nebraska, and the prices quoted by the coal dealers. "We will take your order and fill it when we can," is the usual answer to the order for coal.

Likewise, corn is not selling quite up to the 50-cent price. Corn is about 60 cents per bushel in Chicago, and considerably less than that in the west. The price of corn, according to the University report, it is cheaper to burn corn than coal, and especially so since no coal is to be had.

GOOD CROP FORECAST
One thing, one of the finest growing seasons Nebraska has ever experienced is "right now."

With abundant and frequent rains, and hot moist weather, the Nebraska corn is growing so rapidly it is actually being harvested. Stand in a big corn field and the rustle of the unfolding blades of corn can be heard. This is called "hearing the corn grow."

Nebraska is cultivating 1,417,900 acres of corn this year. A good yield on July 1, last, was 250,312,000 bushels. Since that estimate was made, the corn plant has made vast improvements. Some experts, unofficially, are estimating the yield as high as 250,000,000 bushels. This would mean a crop worth $150,000,000. Nebraska has the equivalent of 10,000,000 tons of coal stored on its farms. And this fuel can be burned just about as easily as coal.

EXPERIMENT TRIED
Last year corn got down to about 17 cents per bushel. Coal went up to something like $16 or $18 per ton. During this period, literally thousands of Nebraska farmers burned corn in their stoves instead of coal. In an earlier day, before the coming of the railroad, Nebraska farmers had nothing else but corn to burn and practically no coal was used. This condition existed for years. So to burn corn instead of coal is not new to Nebraska farmers. They know all about it.

Nebraska wants the coal strike settled. Of course Nebraska would prefer to sell its corn and buy its coal. But Nebraska is not going to suffer with cold when it has 250,000,000 bushels of corn, equivalent of 10,000,000 tons of coal, in its big granary. Nebraska is going to burn that corn.

Even should the coal strike be settled immediately coal men estimate there will be a shortage of coal in Nebraska, since every ton must be brought from other states. It is considered certain that more or less of the 250,000,000 bushels of corn will be used for fuel, coal strike or no coal strike.

MURDERESS OF TWO CALM

Michigan Young Woman Poisoned Father-in-Law and Beat Husband to Death With Rolling Pin

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
MUSKEGON (Mich.), Aug. 13.—Mrs. Mada Modell, 28 years old, explained yesterday why she regards calmly the killing of her father-in-law because he was "old and a great care" and of her husband because he was "so jealous." One she poisoned with arsenic in his coffee, so that he fell just as he was trying to carry in an armful of wood, while her husband was struck over the back of the head with a rolling pin.

Both deeds were those of the young woman who had been married just a year. It was her mother, earlier accounts of her confession said, who gave Romie Modell, the husband, the coup de grace, with a rolling pin.

This latter act brought the mother and daughter into a sort of harmony which was explained by the young woman today. She had said before that she struck her husband while he was lying on a cot. She struck twice, she said, and struck again while he was quivering. It was her mother, she said today, who also feeling sorry, struck the blow that extinguished life.

The same mother, said the widow, had been her confidante after the killing of Romie Modell's father who was 67 years old. Here is the way the young woman explained the killing of her mother. "We never had a chance to learn anything about religion. We were too busy eating our living and trying to get our rights."

This explanation from a daughter, probably a farm drudge, of her and that of her mother, so a farm drudge, serves to spice her reason for killing the old man. "I know it is not right, but still I felt that the old is better dead," she said.

Work was suspended in Goodwell township today and the neighbors came into White Cloud, where the young woman and her brothers and a farm hand are in jail to discuss the murders. The trial opens Monday.

PROVES REDS PLOT ANARCHY

He must be until its end, a brutal fight of physical force. The underground machinery of the Communist party must constantly extend its illegal machinery to the growth of the illegal party. While coming out in the open the Communist party must not make the mistake of being grasped by the open by exposing its national or district Communist party headquarters, records or other machinery, its underground printing arrangements, or the personnel of its central executive committee.

FOR PERMANENT USE
The underground machinery of the Communist party is not merely for emergencies, but for constant and permanent use. Down to the lowest unit the group of ten, every branch and stem of the party structure must continue to keep its secret. The group of ten, in places and to use these in constant underground functioning. Every member, no matter what his work is in the legal party, must perform his duties in the underground organization.

Only through membership in these legal institutions of the party must be subject to the same discipline, wage scales and regulations as underground party workers. It must always be remembered that the real revolutionary party is the Communist party of America and that the legal party is but an instrument which is used to carry on its work among the masses.

Only through membership in the American section—the Communist party of America—can the workers in America become members of the Communist international.

TACTICS ARE REDOUBLED
The foregoing decrees was circulated here long before the rail and coal strike. It was the American industry could not thrive long without fuel or transportation. In the circulars now in circulation the American Federation of Labor is condemned as being too "reactionary" although the Communists are urged not to abandon the American Federation of Labor, and elaborate instructions are given to the workers to "be on the alert" for the "reactionary" attitude of the American Federation of Labor.

One of the resolutions adopted at Moscow last year was that the principal task of all Communists in America and abroad, "during the next epoch" the concentration of their energy and perseverance on winning over to their side the majority of workers in all labor unions.

Special instructions are given in the circulars from Moscow for the situation in the United States. These relate to England, France, the United States, Asia and Africa, and other parts of the world.

The same process, asserts this resolution of the Communist international, in which the Red international of trade unions joins, "is taking place in America, although at a slower rate. Communists must on no account leave the ranks of the reactionary federation of labor. On the contrary, they should get into the old trade unions in order to revolutionize them. Co-operation with the best sections of the I. W. W. is imperative; this does not, however, preclude an educational campaign against the prejudices of the I. W. W."

LABOR UNION MEN'S JURY DEADLOCKED

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—The jury trying "Frenchy" Mader, president of the building trades council, Dan McCarthy and John Miller, for alleged complicity in the murder of Police Lieut. Lyons, following two labor bombings, appears to be hopelessly deadlocked. The foreman so notified the judge last night, but he instructed them to continue their deliberations until some verdict was reached. Several ballots were taken today but with no change. It is likely the judge will find it necessary to dismiss the jury, perhaps, Monday.

Several months ago Shouse testified against several alleged automobile thieves, some of whom were convicted and sentenced to prison.

The Chinese, when arrested, are tied together by ropes and herded like so many sheep in cars or driven along the roads to the concentration points.

HELPS AT SALINA CRUZ

At last accounts the shipment of Chinese, who were being held in the harbor at Salina Cruz because the vessel had been attached for failure to pay its coaling bill, had been reduced in number from 500 to about 200 by deaths. These Chinese were being taken from Canton, China, to South America, where they were under contract as laborers. About eight months ago the Chinese were being taken from them put into the harbor at Salina Cruz and it has been held there ever since. For several months the Chinese were not permitted to leave the ship while it lay anchored in the harbor.

The Chinese Minister to Mexico is said to have done what he could to relieve the condition of his nation's Chinese. For several months the Chinese were not permitted to leave the ship while it lay anchored in the harbor. Information has reached here from Tampico of a long war between Chinese of that port which resulted recently in the fatal shooting of three well-known members of the Chinese colony there and the wounding of several others. Reports of unrest on the part of the Chinese. They have been poured into Mexico in great numbers for many years. They were brought over by the shipload during the long period of the Diaz administration. They scattered all over the country, many of them going in for farming, truck gardening, restaurant and hotel keeping and merchandising on a small scale. One of the wealthiest men in Mexico is Foon Chuck Mon-clova, whose wealth is well up in the millions of dollars.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS TAKE UP COURSE

National Officer Here to Assist in Building Up Local Organization

Hopes of the local Camp Fire Girls for organization are now being realized, due to the efforts of Mrs. Edith M. Kemphorne, national field secretary of the Camp Fire Girls. For the last two years the various local organizations of the Camp Fire Girls have felt their lack of organization among themselves and with the international organization.

Mrs. Kemphorne, who for the last seven years, has been traveling around the country organizing Camp Fire Girls, has answered their call and is building up their organization. She is giving a series of day courses for Camp Fire leaders or guardians at the University of Southern California in connection with the religious educational summer school.

Much interest has been shown in her course and Camp Fire guardians and aspirants from all over the State are attending her lectures. Many of them coming here for that purpose alone.

Mrs. Kemphorne has invited all the girls to take part in a council fire, their regular ceremony, to take place on the campus of the University of Southern California in front of the old building under the palms at 3 p.m. today.

At the council different members of the faculty will assist and Mrs. Kemphorne will talk on the work of the Camp Fire Girls. Reports will be given by each of the guardians on the work done by her girls in the past.

More than 300,000 miles already has Mrs. Kemphorne traveled in the interest of her organization. She is now on her way to Oregon and Washington and from there to New Zealand. On her trip back from New Zealand she will again stop in Los Angeles.

LOSES LIFE WHEN CANOE TURNS OVER

Young Man Drowned in Lake in Echo Park While Great Crowd Looks On

Albert Bowen of 237 North Figueroa street was drowned when the canoe in which he was riding with two companions capsized in Echo Park Lake yesterday afternoon. Hundreds of persons who lined the shore of the lake witnessed the accident which occurred but three or four minutes after the three young men had left the park boat-house.

They were about 100 yards off shore when one of the men attempted to shift his position in the canoe. Persons on the shore sensing his danger called to warn him. But the boat turned over before the warnings could be heard.

Two of the men remained on the surface struggling fiercely to keep their heads above water. The third sank and did not reappear. For five minutes the two on the surface struggled before they were rescued by a motor launch which was passing by. They were taken to the hospital and are now recovering.

Carbolic Acid Taken Days Ago Finally Kills

Mrs. Sophia Sterpenich, aged 43 years, who is said to have swallowed a quantity of carbolic acid at her home at 1748 East Thirty-ninth street with suicidal intent July 21, died yesterday as the result, according to Chief Deputy Coroner MacDonald. The body was taken to the McCormick undertaking establishment.

According to University police officers who took the stricken woman to the Receiving Hospital shortly after she drank the poison, Mrs. Sterpenich had been brooding over her unrequited love for a man who had just been married.

A nominal fee of 25 cents for examination and 10 cents for each succeeding visit is to be made. The clinic was made possible by the gifts of $50,000 by Mrs. Anita M. Baldwin and $10,000 by F. L. Clark. This money was placed in the trust of the Lutheran Hospital Society of Southern California, which organization built the clinic and yesterday turned it over to the Anita Baldwin Corporation.

The following doctors are in charge of the clinic, and give their services free of charge: Dr. J. A. Scott, Jr., president of the clinic, and Dr. R. E. Hamann, vice-president. Several vocal solos were sung by Mrs. D. Shannon, of Birmingham, Ala.

BANDIT KILLED BY CAFE MAN

Dishwasher, Target for Six Bullets, Escapes

Armed With Shotgun, Rout Two Robbers

"I'm Coming Again, Damn You," Shouts Thug

Killing one of two bandits who attempted to rob a restaurant at 5208 Moneta avenue early yesterday morning, John Griev, a dishwasher, target for six bullets of the bandits, escaped unscathed. The companion of the slain hold-up man made his escape.

Griev, armed with a shotgun, opened fire on the bandit after one of them had held up a waiter in the restaurant. The dead bandit, whose name is not yet known, has been identified as the same man who on four previous occasions had taken part in holding up the restaurant.

In the descriptions of University Police Officers Briggs and Nolan the battle was thrilling. The routing of the bandits rested solely upon the courage of the restaurant man and his ability to handle the scatter gun.

MEXICAN TRADE SURVEY BEGUN

Department of Commerce Behind Move

California Shippers Will be Benefited

The Department of Commerce through the Foreign and Domestic Commerce Bureau is conducting a trade survey of the West Coast of Mexico designed particularly to benefit California merchants and manufacturers. Details of the work, already well under way, were made known yesterday.

The survey is being conducted by P. L. Bell, one of Secretary Hoover's most skilled aides. He already has finished an inspection of conditions in the northern district of Lower California, and in a few days will arrive at Hermosillo, capital of the border and coastal State of Sonora. He will proceed down the Gulf of California and Pacific Coast as far as Manzanillo.

Salesman, Suspected of Theft of Rings, Runs When Police Are Called

Suspected of the theft of two diamond rings valued at $750, Frank J. Huettmann, a salesman was booked at the City Jail early yesterday morning. Mrs. Charles D. Kline, landlady of a rooming house at 716 East Twelfth street, where Huettmann was a guest, accused him of the theft.

As soon as they disappeared, he began a careful questioning of several of her guests. She then telephoned the Central Police Station, and Detectives Allen and Knapp were dispatched to investigate.

Just before the detectives arrived Huettmann, they said, ran from his room, through a hall past Mrs. Kline and into a smaller room, the door of which he slammed and locked. Mrs. Kline dropped the telephone receiver and ran after him. The detectives saw they later found that Huettmann had hidden the rings. He was taken to the jail and booked on suspicion of burglary.

San Diego Police Also Nab Prominent Citizens and Seize Liquor and Gambling Devices

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 13.—Thirty persons, including a score of prominent citizens of San Diego, two naval officers and four women, were arrested in a spectacular raid shortly after midnight last night when a squad of policemen broke into the rooms of the Sunset Supper Club at Ocean Beach and brought to an abrupt ending a night of merry-making in which wine, women, song and gambling are declared to have reigned decidedly supreme.

The descent of the raiding squad upon the clubhouse was so swift and effective that none of the inmates escaped. The squad surrounded the place and then smashed in the front and side doors. Evidence of liquor in the form of eight partly filled bottles were seized, as well as complete outfits of roulette and other gambling devices.

George Topuzes, proprietor of the club, was released on $1000 bail to answer a charge of violating the Volstead Act, and James Miller, asserted to have been operating the games, was released on $100 bail. The naval officers, who gave the names of Lieut. J. C. Kent and Ensign G. A. Patterson, and the four women were freed after depositing $25 each. THREE WEEKS STILL REMAIN

"Times" Campaign to Have Whirlwind Finish

Exceptional Interest Over Latest Prize

Original Subscribers Can be Relisted

An unprecedented enthusiasm and activity has taken hold of candidates in the Times $70,000 prize campaign as a result of the last $30 club offer and last extra gold offer just announced. The opportunity to get $5,000 extra votes on $30 clubs of new subscriptions, and at the same time win an extra prize of $100 in gold, has precipitated a rush and scramble for new subscriptions throughout the field of contest.

Only three more weeks remain until the distribution of $70,000 in prizes, headed by the $15,000 home in Wilshire Crest and the $9,000 bungalow in West Hollywood Tract. Twenty splendid automobiles will soon be turned over to candidates who earn them by right of vote accumulations. And the last $30 club and gold offer—which opens today and continues until August 28, just one week before the end of the campaign—provides the easy road to victory.

DETERMINED PURPOSE

Callers at the campaign office are showing a spirit of determination to win. Letters from candidates in the outside districts are showing the same determination to be among the winners when the final day comes. Enthusiasm has spread to friends and in many instances entire communities are behind their favorites.

The last $30 club offer is the solution to the crucial period of the campaign. Every $30 club of new subscriptions will entitle a candidate to a bonus of $5,000 votes in addition to the regular votes. The candidate who has secured the highest amount in new subscription payments during the period of this offer will be rewarded with an extra prize of $100 in gold.

SPEDDY CANDIDATES

No wonder candidates are speeding ahead with their efforts. Even new candidates have sent in their nominations, and late starters, who had thought the campaign was over, are still in the race.

The nomination period will close in a few days and those who plan to enter should not delay a minute longer. Candidates who have secured new subscriptions earlier in the campaign can now secure second payments on their subscriptions and have them apply on the offer. A subscriber who paid for six months, for example, can pay for another six months, and the candidate will receive the difference in regular votes between the first six months and a full year. Besides having the second payment apply on the extra vote and gold offer. Candidates should make it a point to get in touch with every new subscriber they have on their records and endeavor to obtain a second payment of thus increasing their vote standing substantially.

AID PLEDGED RICHARDSON

P. T. A. Leader Gives Support to Treasurer

Believes Stephens Not Man for Governor

Extravagance of Officials Pointed Out

That State Treasurer Friend W. Richardson possesses all the attributes of a competent executive, attributes Gov. Stephens does not possess, was the opinion made yesterday by Mrs. Charles F. Gray, past president of the Los Angeles Parent-Teacher Federation, in a letter received from her at Richardson headquarters. Although not a politician, Mrs. Gray has had wide experience in various phases of State affairs and is one of the most active women in the P. T. A. organization.

OPPOSES GOVERNOR

Previous to arriving at a decision to support Mr. Richardson in his candidacy for Governor, I had concluded, as I find since, that many others have also, that I could not conscientiously cast a vote for Gov. Stephens. Mrs. Gray stated:

"Though not a politician, some varied experience has given me intimate knowledge of certain conditions, not only in our State, but in our nation. This only, with no personal dislike for the Governor, caused me to believe that it is essential that there be a change in the State administration and a release from the great machine that now has power to shape policies for California along both business and educational lines."

"The extravagance spoken of so recently from public platform as a doubtful exists, and no one could expect the continuance of these same administrators in office."

WOULD END ABUSES

"My personal impression of Mr. Richardson is of a serious, straight forward man, who absolutely knows the needs of this State, and within him, his sense of duty and sense of his ability to correct certain conditions and gross abuses of power now existing."

"It would seem that the good of all people of all occupations would be considered by a man such as he, with no untoward catering to certain groups that might possibly control a heavy vote. His long experience as State Printer and then as State Treasurer has fitted him for his task and he would be thorough, just and capable."

"His earnest, honest and powerful personality impresses me. I shall not go wrong in casting my vote for Mr. Richardson."

Brother Bill Gets Blessing of 'Other Half'

Five years have passed since the Midnight Mission on Los Angeles street came into existence. Of these men and women who ministered the Mission but one is left—Brother Tom—T. W. Liddell. There were two until last week, when Brother Bill—William Foster—gave his farewell service.

And at that service, more than 60 men and women—baptism and communion on the Sea of Life—bade Brother Bill "God Speed," and sent him out into the world to broadcast the Word.

The Midnight Mission continues its work—the extending of aid, spiritual and material, to all in need. That it does this work well may be attested to by thousands of down-and-outers.

ESCONDIDO SWINGING TO MOORE

Huntington Beach Man Says San Diego County Solid Against Johnson

W. J. Elliott of Huntington Beach, who has just returned from Escondido and other towns of northern San Diego county, yesterday told of the amazing change of the Senatorial situation there. He believes Moore will carry this part of San Diego county by the largest majority any candidate ever had, he says.

"I am interested in putting in a tile factory in Escondido, and on this trip I visited every town in the northern portion of San Diego county, including Escondido. Being interested, also, in the nomination of Charles C. Moore by the Republicans, I made it a part of my business to find out how Moore stands in this section, and succeeded in finding out that Johnson does not stand much high."

"I never saw such a falling off in sentiment for Johnson for public office as seems to have overtaken Hiram Johnson. I had noticed it in Huntington Beach, among the workers in the oil fields, and in other places I have been, but when I struck Escondido, Escondido, San Marcos and sections in San Diego county, it became so pronounced as to almost surprise me."

"All of Johnson's former supporters have left him, it seems to me. I talked with a large number of people who said they were formerly Johnson supporters, but that they had switched to Moore. If there are any in that neighborhood who were formerly against Johnson, and have switched to him, I didn't find them. I don't think they exist."

"Moore will carry northern San Diego county almost unanimously."

MOORE IS WELCOMED AT FRESNO

Supporters in That Region Encourage Candidate With Favorable Reports

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
FRESNO, Aug. 13.—A series of conferences followed the arrival of Charles C. Moore in Fresno county today.

Hardly had Mr. Moore and his party reached the Fresno Hotel than telephone calls began to ring and conferences were arranged for the remainder of the day. Representatives from a score of towns in Fresno county came to the hotel to meet Mr. Moore and to make reports upon their work. A change of program will take Mr. Moore to Bakersfield Tuesday evening, as originally planned, and to Visalia on Wednesday evening.

A great mass meeting has been planned for Fresno tomorrow. It is believed that this meeting, in the heart of what was considered Johnson territory, will be even bigger than the Sacramento meeting, when Moore invaded the home of Johnson.

Johnson is continuing his tactics of following Moore about the State, his engagements following by one day those of Moore. His last night at Merced was one of the largest gatherings of the kind ever held in that region.

Chester Rowell, former owner of a local newspaper and one time ardent supporter of Hiram Johnson, will join the Moore party here in time for tomorrow night's mass meeting.

A coincidence is furnished by the appearance of Rowell, now on the side of Moore for the fight for the Republican nomination, and the newspaper which he formerly owned is out battling for the re-nomination of Hiram Johnson. Residents of Fresno are taking a keen interest in this situation and the appearance of Rowell, which will be the first in his old home town for some time, will, it is predicted, bring out one of the largest political gatherings ever held here.

SERVICES TODAY

Funeral services of Mrs. Mary R. Barrett, aged 64, 1815 La Brea avenue, will be conducted today at 2:30 p.m. from the C. R. Vesper Chapel, and interment will take place in Rosehill Cemetery. Mrs. Barrett leaves a husband, Clarence E. Barrett, and an aunt, Marion E. Sharp.

Says Johnson Long on Talk, Short on Work

Attacks Senator's Alliance With Hearst

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
MERCED (Cal.) Aug. 13.—Facing a crowd of more than 1000, Charles C. Moore, candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, last night reiterated charges made the preceding evening before a crowd, estimated at 1000.

Preceded by Dr. Langley Porter, of San Francisco, James Hyde of Stanford University and members of local committees, Moore took up the argument where the speakers had left off and hurled his charges with the force of a lance, which frequently interrupted his utterances with prolonged applause.

Moore again assailed his opponent with the questions which he has repeatedly asked, and which as yet have been unanswered. He asked again why Hiram Johnson explained why, in some seventy months as Senator, he has had only four bills passed. He asked again whether the voters of California believe in oratory or in work.

Moore again attacked the Hearst-Johnson-DeYoung alliance, branded it as unbroken, and ended by declaring that the voters of California will not be deceived by the alliance and issues misrepresented through the flowing oratory of Johnson and his supporters. Scores of farmers, from miles surrounding, attended the meeting and were victorious in the applause of the speaker. Mr. Hyde quoted Hiram Johnson's utterances of 1918 and showed the difference between those utterances and the Senator's record to date. While in 1918, Johnson branded Hearst as an assassin of character, he is now branded as a traitor to the people.

MASCOT OF CALIFORNIA LANDLUBBER

Prunes Goes on Rampage in Admiral's Suite; Now Selig Zoo Member

Prunes, the baby bear, for several months the mascot of the battleship California, has become a landlubber. After being discharged in disgrace by a general court-martial because of an adventure in the admiral's suite when he made it look as if it had been struck by a hurricane, he was given "shore leave" at Los Angeles.

He has since found a home at Selig Zoo, where he has been formally introduced to Mary, the chimpanzee with the human brain. Others of Col. W. N. Selig's star boarders, Cy De Vry, chief animal trainer for Col. Selig, has taken Prunes in hand and soon he will be added to the jungle vaudeville bills that are staged every Saturday and Sunday afternoon for the edification of the animal lovers visiting the zoo.

FAME AWAITING UNKNOWN HERO

Horseshoe Pitching Champ Will be Honored

Contest Open to All Who Are Confident of Prowess

Other Games Will be Held at Pasadena Picnic

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
PASADENA, Aug. 13.—The horseshoe pitching champ of Southern California will be discovered to fame next Saturday, when the Pasadena Tourists Club will hold a picnic at Brookside Park. The Long Beach Horseshoe Club, headed by W. R. Bradford, who has quite a local reputation as a tosser, will meet the Pasadena Tourists Club in a pitching contest which is open to anyone in this section who is confident of his prowess.

Another vigorous, old-time sport that will be displayed to full advantage at the picnic is chess and checker tournament. Here again the Long Beachers will shine as the carded opponents of the Pasadena Tourists.

The athletic committee, of which Charles W. Padlock, sprint champion, is chairman, announced today a program of boys, girls and open foot races, and promised that Charles W. himself would dash off a 100 yard sprint race just to show what he could do. He will give the others a chance by not entering the competitive events, but his exhibition will be enough to draw a crowd, the committee thinks.

For the wrestling event, City Firman Thuerich, 175-pound champion of the A.E.F., will meet Freeman Griffith in a couple of bouts. On the boxing card are Jimmie Berry and Teddy Miller, who will box four rounds at 115 the Electric Railway rate case. We are also satisfied that one of the most urgent transportation needs of the city is a system of annual transfers from the Pacific coast local lines to the lines of the Los Angeles Railway, and vice versa.

WEEK TRANSFER EXCHANGE

Officials Wage Fight for Reciprocity Between Red and Yellow Car Lines

led by Chief Engineer Osborne of the Board of Public Utilities, the city officials of Los Angeles are engaged in a long and bitter fight with the Pacific Electric and Los Angeles Railway companies. Whether this full transfer of the lines should be made, the State Commission has not yet decided. The city officials are not prepared to say at this time. It is apparent that an order on this point cannot be made without taking into consideration the Los Angeles Railway, which is only incidentally before us in the present proceeding, in case 1892. There is, however, pending, an application from that company which will soon be considered, and we believe that the order in the present proceeding should require a stipulation by applicant declaring its readiness, providing the commission makes a similar order in the Los Angeles Railway case, to establish a transfer good on both lines, and to such extent and under such conditions as may be determined by the commission.

Diet and Health
By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.
Author of "Diet and Health, with Key to the Calories"

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

Help! Help! My dear! It has training, and skill and experience. I will tell you some of the things that you should ask if you are in need of a physician and have none whose word you have proved. (1.) Is he a graduate of a college that has a high educational requirement as a preliminary to entering? The high-class colleges now are requiring four years of high school and two years of collegiate work as an entrance requirement. This insures a trained mind and one that is capable of taking the high technical training required. A study of such complexity as the body in health and disease and all of the factors that make for health and disease, requires a trained mind to start with.
All over the country are so-called colleges in the business solely to make money, that profess to give degrees that give the title of doctor. All they require apparently, for entrance is the ability to read and write. Many of these give certificates, but they are not degrees. Anyone who has the price can enter and take their degree and be listed on the public to take your life in their hands if, by their alluring ads, they give you confidence and you go to them.
I do not blame people for being ambitious and wanting to get the title of doctor. I blame the States for licensing these commercial colleges that teach there is only one cause of disease and only one method of treatment and that, the one they teach. The only thing the State should insure the public is that anyone who bears the title of doctor can be trusted to have a trained, educated mind, and a four years' course in the technical and scientific knowledge. This training cannot be received in less time.
(2.) What is his standing in his own profession? Is he a member in good standing in his county medical society?
(3.) Is his personal character one of honesty and integrity? (Perhaps this should have been first.) If it is a surgeon you need, he should have all of these qualities and one other. Has he served a long apprenticeship with an older and recognized surgeon of merit? We have now an association of surgeons known as the F.A.C.S.—the Fellowship of the American College of Surgeons. Any surgeon who is a member of that must have had a long series of successful operations and a long experience with good physicians. The requirements to be a member are on merit only. These qualities in a physician or surgeon are the fundamentals required. Absolutely dependable character, a trained, educated mind; a graduate of a high-class college and experience gotten or being got in clinics or personal relationship under recognized and meritorious physicians of standing.
A physician who has these qualifications, if he keeps up with the progress of his profession, should come under the head of a good physician.

Members of the City Club are planning to attend the Pilgrimage Play in a body on Wednesday night. Bullock's employees on that same evening will make a second visit to the play, while a group of twenty boys from the Fifty-fourth-street Methodist Sunday school will be in the audience.

ASKS PERMISSION TO REMOVE SPUR TRACK

The Pacific Electric Railway Company has asked permission of the Railroad Commission to abandon and remove a spur track 299 feet in length near Santa Monica Boulevard and Cahuenga avenue, Los Angeles city. Since the destruction by fire a year ago of the Lemon Exchange warehouse this spur has not been used, the petitioner states.

Browns Bow to White Sox in Rapid Game

Cleveland Indians Win from Tigers in Ninth

Given even a fighting chance, William Wrigley, Jr., will provide Los Angeles a baseball plant commensurate with the needs of this metropolis of the West, most rapidly growing city in the country.

This proposed concrete stadium, designed to cost $500,000, will be the most modern in the country and will be of a character to handsomely adorn either major league. Nothing remotely approaching it in symmetry, beauty and permanence exists in the minors, should the proposed plan be permitted to go through.

The present plank park on Washington street has adequate capacity for the average attendance, except that the grand stand is a bit limited on sunny days, but the structure is out of date, an eyesore from the outside, miserably arranged inside, an architectural blemish on the municipality and a civic anachronism.

Fans as a rule take something akin to a proprietary interest in their baseball plant, and a really modern plant is one of the show places of any city.

Securing of an option on a site at Thirty-ninth street and South Park avenue is a prelude to actual construction work, providing no opposition is interposed.

This is the second option obtained on a site. The other was near Washington street and Western avenue, but the site was relinquished when there were objections from those living in a rather thickly populated residential district.

However, such a park as the one in Pittsburg, to my way of thinking the most pleasant to the eye in the country, barring possibly the Polo Grounds from a front view, would be an adornment to any section of any city, and the Wrigley plans call for something a little more artistic than any yet designed.

Pittsburg's baseball plant is located in the beautiful Schenley Park district and from the outside might easily be mistaken for part of that group of architectural piles, including the Carnegie Art Institute.

One sitting in the second or third deck of the grand stand can look across the rolling sweep of lawn and see white-dome-topped steel kites pursuing soft balls little more than double the span of a home run from the plate. As far as known the Schenley Park people have never found this palatial ball yard an annoyance, or regretted its presence.

Wrigley's plans and specifications call for a capacity of 21,000, which would approximately seat the largest crowd ever assembled in the history of minor-league baseball. Ten thousand of these seats will be in the grand stand, with 11,000 in the bleachers. Amplest adequate for the next few years, but it may be found eventually that more stand and less bleacher space would have been more desirable. This is strictly a grand-stand age, even in the class B and C leagues. However, the construction doubtless will be such as to provide for enlargement of the grand stand when needed. Elevator service is planned.

The present park, a good old wagon in its day, is arranged all to the reverse. Grand-stand fans enter through a common ground exit, pass along a runway in front of the back boxes and then climb stairs to their seats. This results in confusion both before and after the game and interferes with the view of those occupying the lower boxes.

Modern arrangements call for gradual inclines up which the patrons walk easily from the outside and then descend to their seats from the rear or top of the stand. Exits are so arranged that the crowd can quickly disperse without discomfort or loss of time. Both of these, and particularly the latter, are big items in the life of the average baseball patron. The present stand when filled can be cleared only at a snail's pace. In fact, sometimes I think that a good swift snail could beat the time made under the present arrangement.

Thirty-ninth street seems quite a span to those accustomed to having a ball yard on the edge of the business district, and yet it is surprisingly close in when one considers the distance traveled in a majority of the cities.

This is but thirty-one blocks from Seventh and Spring streets and a ride of only a few minutes once the street cars are out of the downtown congestion. In fact, few believed that an ample sight could be found that near, and it will seem a lot closer five years from now. In fact, the business district now extends well beyond Thirty-ninth on several streets. To a certain extent this site will have to be cleared, as occupancy of it by a baseball plant will necessitate moving a dozen buildings. The prospect of moving one building would discourage most of us, but there is a man back of this project accustomed to doing things on a tremendous scale.

Here is a big thing. Any city would welcome a $500,000 ornate structure tacked in its lap. No bonus, no special privileges are asked. All that is desired is permission. It is a project worthy the encouragement of every citizen and every civic organization. Citizens have been known to subsidize far smaller enterprises than this.

Something more than passive acceptance should be shown. It deserves a cheer.

CUBS VANQUISHED
Added largely by Olmstead's heavy work with the stick, the Glendens Merchants trimmed the Latin Cubs yesterday afternoon in their contest at Glendale, 11 to 1.

Whitely, Glendens twirler, fanned 11 batters, while Atlas of the Cubs whiffed five. Atlas was slightly out of form yesterday, allowing ten hits. He created a sensation in the Bay League last spring leaving for Compton.

CLASSY PITCHING
Bradford Baking Company's minor journeyed to Hyman yesterday to be decisively defeated by the Hyman outfit, 11 to 1. The feature of the game was the pitching of Dutch Steiner, who fanned seven men in eight innings, when he was lifted to permit a batter to take a hand. In that time he permitted only one hit.

Schaefer, of the winning nine, made a sensational one-handed catch in the eighth inning.

WOMEN OUT OF LUCK
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The Amateur Athletic Union as a national organization does not at the present time recognize women's events. It is possible this sphere of sport will be included by the committee of their annual meeting.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Two former Yankees, McGraw and Peckinpaugh were largely responsible for Washington's 3-to-2 victory over New York today. McGraw kept the Yankees from scoring until the ninth inning, and Peckinpaugh's bat in the sixth inning helped the locals. Ruth was absent from the lineup as a result of an abscess operation in New York.

LEVY MAYER SUCCUMBS

World's Richest Lawyer

Authority on International and Constitutional Law
Apoplexy Victim

Formation of Corporations and Fight on Dry Law
Won Fame

(REUTERS DISPATCH)
CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Levy Mayer, one of the most prominent lawyers in the world, was found dead in the open window of his room at the Blackstone Hotel early today.
The discovery was made by Mr. Mayer's valet. When he went to wake Mr. Mayer, he saw the latter lying in a heap beside the window. He immediately summoned a physician who applied restoratives, but without effect. The doctor said Mayer was due to apoplexy.
Mr. Mayer, with one of his daughters, Mrs. Walter Hirsch, has been traveling in Europe for several months, but is expected to arrive in Chicago Saturday.
Mr. Mayer was a famous authority on international and constitutional law. Throughout the last thirty years of his life he had carried a staggering burden of important legal work, representing the opponents of the Eighteenth Amendment, many great corporations, theatrical interests and at the time of his death he was engaged in the formation of a $100,000,000 steel merger that promised to be a formidable rival to the United States Steel Corporation.
It is estimated his personal assets will run between $10,000,000 and $15,000,000. He owned many valuable stocks and buildings in the heart of Chicago.
Mr. Mayer was born in 1859 in Richmond, Va. His father, Henry Mayer, was a lawyer and a well-known man. The family was an
